DROCLAMATION .- BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA -$ 200 REWARD. Whereas, it has been officially reported to this Department, that on or about the 10th February, ult., a negro boy, the property of Col. Luke Russell, of Craven county, was supposed to have been kidnapped by JOHN and SAMUEL SMITH, which boy was discovered, ten or twelve days afterwards, near the road side, in Greene county, murdered and partially buried-a ball having been shot through his head, and his throat cut from ear to ear; and as the said John and Samuel Smith stand charged with the felony aforesaid,

Now, therefore, to the end that the said offenders may be apprehended and brought to trial, I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, offering a reward of One Hundred Dollars for either of them, to any person or persons, who will apprehend and confine them, or either of them in the Jail, or deliver them to the Sheriff of Craven county; and I do moreover hereby require all officers, whether civil or military, within this State, to use their best exertions to apprehend or cause to be apprehended, the said fugitives.

GIVEN under my hand as Governor, and the Great Seat of the State of North Carolina. Done at our City of Raleigh, March 26, 1840.

EDWARD B DUDLEY. Given under my hand as Governor, and

EDWARD B DUDLEY.

C. C. BATTLE, Private Secretary. JOHN SMITH is described as a man of near middle age, about five feet nine or ten inches high, stoutly built, ruddy complexion and healthy appearance, dark hair and has lost an upper front tooth. No description of Samuel is given. They were born and brought up in Craven but removed to either Georgia or Tennesse some years since, but returned under pretence of visiting their relations and have been lurking about under very suspicious circumstances for several months .-They had, when they kidnapped Col. Russel's Negro, a sorrell horse with a flaxen mane and tail, with white feet and face, and are said to have a variety of covers to their Cart and to change them very frequently. April 1, 1840.

VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE .- I now offer for sale, my Plantation lying in the forks of Neuse River, Crabtree, and Walnut Creeks, 6 miles East of Raleigh containing about three hundred and fifty-seven acres. Also another piece adjoing the other, containing about Ninety Acres. There is ground enough opened on the former tract, to work to advantage five or six hands. There is on this tract a comfortable dwelling house, and good negro houses, &c. together with an excellent young Apple Orchard, of choice fruit. The other tract is entirely in wood. It is useless to give a discription of this land, further than to say, that for location, and fertility, it is not surpassed by any tract of its size in this County. Those disposed to purchase and wishing to view the premises, will call on the subscriber at Raleigh, or the overscer on the premises who will show the land.

For terms apply to the subscriber THO, COBBS. Jan. 1, 1840.
